

I believe that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved my time at home. An example of how effective Indiana's law has been; I used to receive 5 to 6 calls per night, now I only receive one per week.